

NOME:

DATA:

Exercício de Conectores, verbos e sinais de pontuação - Inglês 3ª série do EM

1. Correct the punctuation of the conjunctive adverb:

I prefer to eat my dinner at the dining room table, instead, I usually eat in front of the television.

A) I prefer to eat my dinner at the dining room table instead, I usually, eat in front of the television.

B) I prefer to eat my dinner at the dining room table; instead, I usually eat in front of the television.

2. If a subordinating conjunction falls in mid-sentence, there is usually no comma used. If it starts a sentence, there is a comma _____ the introductory phrase.

A) Before

B) Before and after

C) After

3. Choose the correct use of comma:

A) After eating dinner in front of the television, all week, I decided to change locations.

B) After eating dinner, in front of the television all week I decided to change locations.

C) After eating dinner in front of the television all week, I decided to change locations.

4. Choose the correct use of comma:

A) I decided to change locations after eating dinner in front of the television all week.

B) I decided, to change locations after eating dinner in front of the television all week.

C) I decided to change locations, after eating dinner in front of the television all week.

5. Choose the correct use of comma:

A) I ate dinner in front of the television every night, and I, finally got tired of it.

B) I ate dinner in front of the television every night, and I finally got tired of it.

C) I ate dinner in front of the television every night, and, I finally got tired of it.

GABARITO

Questão 1	Questão 2	Questão 3	Questão 4	Questão 5
B	C	C	C	B